

ILL-EFFECTS OF TRIAL

(From S. Itzhaki)

Tel Aviv: The most terrible chapters of the barbarous extermination of Jews in the death camps of Maidanek, Sobibor and others were told in the court of the Eichmann trial.

Many nervous breakdowns have been reported all over the country.

One family: a man and his wife, suddenly became mad and were taken from their home in Petach Tikvah to a mental hospital.

For shouting, "Why hasn't Eichmann killed you too?" an Oriental Jew, Gavriel Aharonov, was sentenced on Tuesday for a fortnight's imprisonment.

He made the remark during a dispute over a parking place to a man whose father and brothers perished in the death camps.
