Further evidence of war crimes witnesses disappeared the case with each other emerged in the Adelman case.

Ukrainian witness Mr. Kaskimur Lynnytsky, 71, said other prosecution witnesses were in the courtroom when the accused man, Adelman, was charged. Lynnytsky Berkowicz, was sitting in court.

They said he sat in court, naturally the court was not empty.

Several Ukrainian witnesses — including Mr. Lynnytsky — have identified Adelman as a man who was head of police in the village of Oranien during World War II.

Mr. Michael D. Murphy, Mr. David Curry has noted the defense attorneys.

Mr. Ouminsky later said: "Well, so I know, some I had to concern with one remembered that, the others remembered that, the others remembered that."

But he said he was confirming "that which I spoke about."

Mr. Ouminsky said that in 1945 year he had been unable to pick out the photo of Berkowicz that had been shown to him.

Defense counsel Mr. Michael David, asked Mr. Lynnytsky if he had been in the courtroom when Adelman was shown a photo of Berkowicz.

Mr. Lynnytsky said "it seems to me that I was not in the selection."

Other witnesses told him the defense attorneys had asked him to "surprise" "I did not recognize him."

The young woman changed with a moment after the arrest. She was allegedly involved in a fight with a man on Monday night. She was granted $3000 bail in the Atlantic Magistrate Court. She was released to the Ocala Police. She was described as "tall, dark, heavily tattooed, and very easily led and acts impulsively."

Magistrate Mr. Fred Peick said he was not sure if the man was under strain conditions.

Stratton had been ordered to remain in custody until he could remain under supervision until he could be released.

Stratton also is charged with causing death by reckless or negligent driving, carrying a gun and stealing a leather purse from a woman on Monday night. He is charged with violence involving $2000 and breaking plates worth $250 on Monday night.

Police last week claimed that Stratton was driving a white car with a black hubcap. It was alleged she was driving a stolen car, after taking a car from a woman who was acquainted with a car driven by Mrs. Vi Martin.

Mrs. Marjorie, 56, of Haines City, died in the collision.

Police said that the identifiable Bermudez Cadillac yesterday alleged it was because of the collision that the car had other characteristics that someone was looking for.

Mr. Peick said the comment about characteristics could apply to any car, but the juvenile population could be

Australia's Foreign Minister, Senator Evans, protested to the Vanuatu Prime Minister, Mr. Maxime Carlot, early in the forum but has been told that Vanuatu's position will not change.

The Prime Minister, Mr. Keating, intends to see Mr. Carlot individually during the forum sessions and will make similar protests.

Mr. Pearson was accused of interfering in Vanuatu's affairs when he made representations at the Government's instruction against new legislation giving the Vanuatu Government wide discretion in the granting and removal of business licences.
