

"No feelings of guilt", Eichmann

(From S. ITZHAKI)

TEL-AVIV: I learn on the most reliable authority that according to Eichmann's lawyer Robert Servatius, Eichmann told him "I have no feelings of guilt. I had to carry out orders. If it were up to me to issue such orders I would not have done it."

Servatius quoted Eichmann as saying also that "perhaps I will be hanged but I never gave orders of this kind."

Servatius added that Eichmann will not do as other Nazi officers and officials did at Nuremberg trials. He will give all the facts to the court to decide whether he was guilty.
