It's exploitation, warns Gregory

Federal Opposition
plans a youth wage of $3 an hour. It would impose a "starvation wage" on teenagers, the Social Labor Minister,
Mr. Gregory said yesterday.

The Opposition announced the measure as the national conference the weekend in an effort to combat youth unemployment.

The proposal will see those aged 15-17 paid $3 an hour from 1993
to 1994.

Calls for help flood in during storms

Trees were uprooted, fences toppled and roofs lifted by strong winds which ripped through Adelaide yesterday and on Sunday night.

Wind gusts up to 100km/h caused widespread damage and power blackouts throughout the metropolitan area.

A State Emergency Services spokesman said yesterday almost all suburbs had reports of minor damage from the storm and strong winds.

North, Para Vista and Mitchell Park on Sunday night and caused widespread minor blackouts.

A police spokesman said in concerned road hazards such as trees and powerlines across roads. Four were road accidents and 48 resulted from house and building damage.

The Electricity Trust of SA said powerlines were down in Glenelg yesterday and on Sunday night.

One of the heaviest, high school biology teacher, Mr. Michael Dwyer, bought two bikes to his collection.

Mr. Dwyer, from Belair, said he had collected about 35 bikes, including a 1960s yearling, and hoped to open a bicycle museum.

He said the black painted bikes that were auctioned were "terrible".

"Their only value is that they were used in the film," he said.

"I would have paid a higher price because the movie seems to be going to a good cause."

Rayner urges synod to settle women priest rift

From SIMON PINDER

SYDNEY, Australia's
Anglican Primate
Archbishop Keith
Rayner yesterday
called the General Synod to settle the rift between the church and the women's ordination issue.

In his opening address to the church's 19th General Synod, Rayner appealed for a spirit of concurrence, saying the church must accept the Bishop of Canberra and Goulburn, Bishop Owen
Dowling, as a member of the synod.

He said the church was facing a crisis over the issue which was seriously damaging the church's unity.

The controversy over women's ordination has been a major issue for the church for many years.
It is a matter of deep concern to many of its members.
